

FULL BIO

Freysteinn is a talented musician who has dedicated his career to mastering the art of double bass. He began his studies at Félag Íslenskra Tónlistarmanna (FÍH) in Reykjavík, Iceland and completed them in 2012. The following year, he traveled to Holland to pursue a Bachelor's degree in music for double bass at The Royal Conservatorium of Den Haag, which he successfully completed in 2016.

Not content with just a Bachelor's degree, Freysteinn continued his studies at the Escola Superior De Música De Lisbon ESML in Portugal, where he started his Master's degree in Double Bass.

As a musician, Freysteinn has performed at numerous jazz festivals throughout Europe, including the Reykjavík Jazz Festival, Dola Jazz in Norway, and the Vilnius Jazz Festival in Lithuania. He has also performed as a leader and session player in several countries, including Holland, Germany, Denmark, Portugal, Spain, and his native Iceland.

Freysteinn's passion for music is evident in his dedicated pursuit of excellence in his craft. But Freysteinn's commitment to music goes beyond his academic achievements. He has performed at numerous jazz festivals and venues throughout Europe, showcasing his virtuosity and creativity as a bassist.

Freysteinn's passion for music is contagious, and his dedication to his craft is an inspiration to aspiring musicians and music lovers everywhere. His commitment to music and his unwavering pursuit of excellence are a testament to the transformative power of music and its ability to connect people from all backgrounds and cultures.